Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Twenty-Sixth Annual Report of the Secretary of the State Horticultural Society of Michigan, 1896 No part of Michigan has been more fortunate in the influence exerted for the good of the state by its progressive public men, than the Grand river valley. Prominent among the men whose influence has been widespread, blessing the state is Samuel L. Fuller of the city of Grand Rapids. His early enlistment in the cause of agriculture and horticulture, and his persistent and unceasing efforts for their promotion and advancement have brought results that should endear him to every lover of the best interests of the state. He signed the first call for a meeting to organize the State Horticultural society, and was made chairman of the meeting. He was unceasing in his efforts to build up the society and make it a power for good, his interest never flagging. He gave office room for meetings and consultation. He seemed to see more clearly than others the possibilities of horticulture in Michigan. He made a trip through Wisconsin, Minnesota, and...
