Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Instructions Governing the Procurement of Supplies and Engagement of Services, Quartermaster s Department, U. S Army It therefore becomes the duty of quartermasters to whom apportionments and allotments are made, to so manage the business of the department as not to exceed them Except upon the happening of some extraordinary emergency or unusual circumstance which could not be anticipated at the time of making such apportionment. 4. The accounting and cost keeping provided for is necessary in order that the chief and other quartermasters may know the status of their apportionments and allotments, to enable the Quartermaster-General to prepare and submit to the Secretary of War, for transmission to Congress, estimates for future appropriations, and to intelligently explain to Congress the needs of the Army under the various items for which funds are estimated. 5. In time of war, by the very nature of things, the limitation as to appropriations, etc., is necessarily removed, and the necessity for the cost keeping required where appropriations are definite as to amount and purposes, as in time of peace, will not exist; but the fundamental principle of providing funds to chief and other quartermasters with which to conduct the business, remains the same, and funds, when required, will be furnished upon estimates by an actual transfer of money, to be applied directly to the purpose for which required. The sums so transferred would be in lieu of the apportionments and allotments above referred to. 6. Army appropriation act. - All supplies and services furnished for the maintenance of the Army by the Quartermaster s Department are procured from funds appropriated therefor annually by an act of Congress entitled...
