Reviews

It is an awesome ebook which i actually have at any time read through. It usually fails to charge excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

No unpaid interest is included with debt obligations, except for the cities of Philadelphia and New Orleans, above mentioned. The large amount reported for New Orleans results from the unusual conditions that determine the date on which certain bonds and interest become due. The issue, known as premium bonds amounted to $5,000,000, the bonds being in amounts of $50 to $1,000, and drawing interest from July 15, 1875. At the time when these bonds were sold numbers corresponding to those of the bonds were placed in a lottery wheel; from this wheel 20 numbers are drawn four times each year, and the corresponding bonds, with interest thereon from date of issue, become due--no interest having been paid until the bonds have matured in this manner. The item $5,647,054 is the amount of the interest on the bonds of this issue outstanding on December 31, 1906, that had accrued at that date; the amount of the bonds outstanding at that time was $3,597,160. Debt obligations, classified by authority issuing the same.--Of the debt obligations outstanding at the close of the fiscal year 1906, 96 per cent was issued by the city corporation, 2.3 per cent by independent school districts, and 1.7 per cent by other independent boards or authorities having power to incur local indebtedness in a territory practically coextensive with that of the city corporation. The debt shown in the column other divisions of the government of the city...
