Sourcebooks, Inc, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Is Man the product of a God.or is God the product of human evolution? From the dawn of our species, every human culture-no matter how isolated-has believed in some form of a spiritual realm. According to author Matthew Alper, this is no mere coincidence but rather due to the fact that humans, as a species, are genetically predisposed to believe in the universal concepts of a god, a soul and an afterlife. This instinct to believe is the result of an evolutionary adaptation-a coping mechanism-that emerged in our species to help us survive our unique and otherwise debilitating awareness of death.Spiritual seekers and atheists alike will be compelled and transformed by Matthew Alper s classic study of science and religion. The God Part of the Brain has gained critical acclaim from some of the world s leading scientists, secular humanists, and theologians, and is as a must read for anyone who has pondered the question of God s existence, as well as the meaning of our own.Praise for The God Part of the Brain This cult classic in many ways parallels Rene Descartes search for reliable and certain knowledge.Drawing on such disciplines as philosophy, psychology, and biology, Alper argues that belief in a spiritual realm is an evolutionary coping method that developed to help humankind deal with the fear of death.Highly recommended. -- Library Journal I very much enjoyed the account of your spiritual journey and believe it would make excellent reading for every college student - the resultant residence-hall debates would be the best part of their education. It often occurs to me that if, against all odds, there is a judgmental God and heaven, it will come to pass...
