Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When footloose and fancy-free Jessica, a thirty-something writer, decides to follow her journalistic instincts and trace the story of a young girl for her weekly column in a Dublin newspaper, she unwittingly embarks on a journey into Northern Ireland's tragic past. With her love of all things vintage, Jessica Jane Bare is known as Second-hand Jane to her friends. Hailing from New Zealand, these days she's finding the grass is greener in Dublin and not just because of all the rain. In fact, life would be sweet if it weren't for the reason she left home in the first place-her meddling mother. Marian views Jess's life in Dublin as nothing more than a stop-gap until she meets Mr Right and he's taking his time. Things look set to change, however, when Jess meets the delectable Nick, who ticks all of Marian's boxes. In the meantime, Jess's latest second-hand collectible-a children's book-gives her an idea for her column. Deciding to track down the girl whose name is scribbled inside the cover of that book, she uncovers more than she ever expected. Amy was in the wrong place at the wrong time, the girl's taciturn brother, Owen, informs her. Intrigued, Jess travels to the family pig farm in County Down and listens to Amy's poignant tale unfold through Owen. With a little help from a rather cute runt of the litter she names Wilbur, Jess is about to help put the past to rest and learn that appearances can be deceptive. Then Marian announces she is coming to Dublin to sort her daughter's increasingly tangled love...
