Experience the stories of real New Testament people whose lives were changed by the Master; as told from their own perspective. In the pages of this book the reader will experience the joys, struggles and eventual life changing events that some of our favorite Bible characters lived through. From lessons about new birth to lessons about second chances these stories will touch your heart. In these personal stories you will have the chance to see your own life reflected and have your faith energized and renewed. In this book we have a collection of real stories told by the people who lived them. Come celebrate the birth of Christ as it is told through the eyes of Joseph, or the Shepherds, or even one of the Wise Men. Experience stories of hope and forgiveness, love and even rejection. Imagine how the crucifixion might have looked from the perspective of a Roman soldier as he carried out his dreadful orders. Put yourself in the sandals of Mary Magdalene as she recalls the glorious resurrection of our Lord. Let these first person narratives of personal encounters with Christ pull you into the Good News of Jesus Christ.
