Excerpt: . . . 11 The 25 billion that is the emergency fund could be used for those purposes or for others, depending upon what we face once we get to October 1, sir. OCHRAN Senator C. Well, I just want to make sure that the record is clear that the request is being submitted for additional funding that can be used to enhance force protection of our troops who are in the field. Weve all come to realize through news reports and the briefings that weve received here on Capitol Hill that this is a very real threat, and that more and more of these rocket-propelled gre-nades and other devices like that that are designed to kill our troops who are operating vehicles and trying to protect the Iraqi people as they establish their capacity for self-government and for ruling their own country through a democratic process. To me its a very timely request and Im hopeful that our committee will act quickly and with unanimity in approving and supporting the ad-ministrations request. General P. Sir, it can be and it will be. ACE OCHRAN Senator C. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Senator S. Senator Bond. TEVENS OND Senator B. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman, and wel-come, Mr. Kaplan and Mr. Lanzillotta and General Pace. I particu-larly appreciate and associate myself with the remarks of General Pace and we thank you for those, sir. We look forward to working with the chairman and the ranking member and I certainly agree with Senator Cochran on the need to ensure that our troops have everything they need to fulfill the mission. I was very interested in some...
