They had a plank walk to connect them, and this building was used in the fall of 1865 and all of 1866 for all recitation outside of the assembly room, except an occasional recitation by that first graduating class which was sometimes crowded into one of the cloak rooms at the east end of the large building. 1867. On the day after the Governor signed the bill appropriating money for the erection of a normal-school building, the directors assembled at Topeka, and proceeded to discuss plans for the structure. What was called Lescher's plan was adopted, and Principal Kellogg was sent to Lawrence to secure the full...
